Applications

Marmoclean is a neutral and delicate detergent, specific for all marble surfaces, which effectively cleans and gives shine and brilliance without having to use polishing machines or specific cloths (wool or microfiber).

Marmoclean moreover tends to smooth the scratches on the freshly waxed surfaces, removing opacity and halos and leaving a pleasant clean scent.

Marmoclean is suitable for all environments where marble is used as a surfacing material.

Fields of application

Marmoclean is a detergent that can be used in many environments, such as:

- Hotels
- Communities and meeting places
- Restaurants
- Offices
- Car showrooms
- Domestic use

and in all those environments where marble is used as a natural surfacing material, polished or lead-polished, as flooring or as a constituent of masonry.

Method of Use

Add 50 ml of Marmoclean (a small coffee cup) in a bucket with two litres of water and wash the surface with the obtained solution.

If diluted as recommended, it is not necessary to rinse.
